Race pride, State pride, and Southern pride ought to be sufficient to keep every Southern white man from voting this Fall for any Republican candidate on the negro plank of the Republican national platform.

It is an old saw that "one-half the world does not know what the other half is doing." We just know that it is the "better half" whch stays at home and can't get on to the curves of the old man when he is doing a stunt down town.

Do we know what an "oncologic hospital" is? Well it is one at which cancer is treated, but for horse sense advertising purposes it ought not to be called by any such name. If you want to reach the doctors, all right; if you want to reach the woman with a cancer, nit.

In the Eighth Congressional District, Texas, the regular Democratic convention renominated Congressman J. M. Pinckney. The supporters of O. T. Holt, who made a fight for the nomination, were ruled out of the convention. Holt may run independently.

A Virginian complains that every time he goes home his wife draws a straight chalk line and makes him walk it to see if he can toe the mark. He wants to know what remedy he has. At present writing it looks like the only thing left for him is to always go home in a condition to walk the chalk line to the queen's taste.

In New York a spiritualist medium faked $1,100 out of a woman whom the medium got in communication with the spirit of her dead husband. The spirit husband begged for money and the widow was persuaded to put it in a sewing machine drawer and turn around three times so his spirit could get the money. When a dead man can "get money from home" like that, it makes a live man want to become a medium.

OPEN-AIR RALLIES.

Campaign Managers Rounded Out Fight With Spectacular Meetings Last Night.

COL. WADDELL'S ADDRESS.

He Again Appealed to People to Resent Infringement Upon Their Liberties.

Dr. Beaman, Rev. N. M. Watson, J. O. Carr, W. J. Bellamy.

Both the dispensary and anti-dispensary people rounded up their campaign last night with open-air rallies in the First and Fifth wards, two of the largest political divisions of the city and each recognized as the bone of contention in the election to-day. The weather was everything that could be desired and each faction made its last stand, admonishing the voter to go on the morrow and cast his vote according to the dictates of his own conscience, at the same time appealing to that conscience with all the power of man to vote either for or against the dispensary as the case may have been according to the speaker.

Col. Waddell was the chief speaker at the anti-dispensary rally which was held at Fifth and Brunswick streets. The Delgado Band furnished music, tar barrels lit up the scene for blocks around and colored lights burned from all points of vantage in the vicinity. As Col. Waddell stepped upon the improvised platform erected for the speaking, the band struck up "Dixie" and the crowd cheered the music and the speaker to the echo. It was difficult to estimate the crowd in the wide street, but there must have been fully a thousand in attendance. The speaker was presented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., in a vigorous speech of five minutes, during which the importance of the issue pending was emphasized and a tribute was paid to Col. Waddell for his wise and safe counsel in 1898 and the successful culmination of that fight against the usurpation of the rights of the Anglo-Saxon people by the Republican party. Mr. McClammy was interrupted by applause when he said Col. Waddell was a safe leader then and that he is now. If Wilmington trusted and profited by his counsel then, it could do so now.

Col. Waddell thanked his friend, Mr. McClammy, for the compliment bestowed upon him, and said he claimed no credit for any part he took, and said he was perfectly satisfied with the situation. He was truly thankful that on the morrow this causeless and senseless agitation was to cease, but deplored that little children should be dragged through the streets as they were that afternoon in a ridiculous effort to influence men how they should vote as between the sale of liquor by a few who arrogate to themselves all the righteousness of the community and the individual who desires to continue to sell it as he has for these many years past. If the agitation had gone on longer, said Col. Waddell, God only knows where it would have ended. He paid a beautiful tribute to woman and said there were good women ion either side of the question. However, as a man he had always tried to do his duty and would continue to do so, regardless of senseless and puerile efforts to the contrary. He had heard that some violence might be done him if he went to speak to the good people of the Fifth ward. If there was one before him, who wished to harm him, let him come upon the platform and assert himself. He spoke in the highest terms of the noble men and women of Wilmington and repudiated as a slander upon the city's good name, the assertion of a certain dispensary speaker at Third and Market streets, who declared that Wilmington was the very Port Arthur of crime and pollution. Col. Waddell said that he would take the responsibility of saying that it was a lie. The speaker then went on to show why the dispensary issue was not a moral one, neither was it one of temperance. If it were, he would be on the other side. No such issue as temperance is presented. Col. Waddell then went on along the same lines as his speech at the City Hall, which has already been published in these columns. He was given frequent applause and appeared to have spoken with much effect.

Ex-Mayor Fishblate, who had a seat on the platform, was called out upon conclusion of Col. Waddell's speech, and he responded briefly with his old-time vigor. He said the well conducted saloon would sell a man a drink but the dispensary couldn't sell him less than a drunk.

As the crowd was leaving there were calls for Justice Bornemann. The "judge" made a brief speech in his characteristic humorous style.

Dispensary Speakings.

At Fourth and Harnett streets Rev. N. M. Watson and J. O. Carr, Esq., addressed an open air meeting of some three or four hundred people in the interest of the dispensary. They were presented by Mr. G. F. Quinn. Rev. Mr. Watson's discourse was a strong appeal to the voter, in behalf of a curtailment of the liquor traffic and he was given the closest attention. Mr. Carr dealt with the economical side of the question and declared it was right for the municipality to handle its franchises for the benefit of people. He made an attack upon the C. R., L. & P. Co. and referred to the incident of converting its electric advertising sign to the use of the liquor forces. His speech was straight from the shoulder and plainly outspoken.

At Fifth and Castle streets Rev. R. C. Beaman, of Durham, and City Attorney Wm. J. Bellamy spoke, the last named having been called out by the crowd when Dr. Beaman had concluded. He said that he spoke not as an official of the city of Wilmington but as an individual. His remarks were vigorous and of a sentimental nature. Dr. Beaman was introduced by Mr. H. W. Malloy. His address is spoken of as having been rather bitter but strong from the viewpoint of a dispensary. The crowd was estimated at between 400 and 500.

THE ELECTION TODAY

Campaign Managers at Dawn This Morning Are Planning Their Action.

INCIDENTS OF YESTERDAY.

Warning Against Bogus Tickets—Information for the Voter as to Law, Etc. Change of Registrar in Fourth Ward—Other Notes.

Dispensary election to-day!

And whatever the verdict of the people at the polls upon the count to-night, the community will breathe a sigh of relief that it is over. The people are wrought up to a pitch, it were best they never were. For four long weeks it has been dispensary, dispensary, dispensary. The past few days the campaign has been fraught with much bitterness and the man of retiring disposition has been loth to give honest expression to his views for fear of being assailed by one side or the other. The contest to-day will be strenuous. Conservative people, without regard to affiliation, say that the result will be close; in fact, too close for comfort on either side. Some bets were placed yesterday at odds in favor of the anti-dispensary forces, but, in the main, people are inclined to the opinion that it is a toss up for either side. The dispensary forces are relying strongly upon a large per cent. of the registered vote's not being cast. The presence of ladies at the polls and the influence wielded over indifferent voters at home is expected to deter many who would otherwise vote their personal convictions upon the question.

According to the construction of the law by attorneys for both sides, the polls will open in the five wards of the city at 8 o'clock this morning and close at sunset, Washington time, which is six minutes past seven o'clock. At each polling place there will be two boxes—one in which the voter will express his preference for or against the dispensary and another in which he will vote upon the question of whether distilleries shall be conducted in the corporate limits or not. Under the Watts law, which went into effect a year ago, distilleries may now be run only in incorporated towns. Fifteen of the county's ballot boxes have been taken over to the City Hall and will be sent out from there to the various polling places before 8 o'clock this morning. There will be three to each ward—two to be voted in and the third to be used in the count. Two representatives of each side have a right and will be present to witness the count, immediately upon the close of the polls this evening. Three of the registrars were sworn in by City Clerk and Treasurer King yesterday afternoon and the others will be sworn in before the polls open this morning.

Upon the count to-night, the law requires the registrars and judges of election to elect one of their number as a member of the Board of City Canvassers, whose duty it will be to meet with the others in the Mayor's office to-morrow at noon, officially canvass the vote and declare the result. However, an unofficial return will be made by the registrars when they return the books to the office of the City Clerk and Treasurer to-night.

Dawn this morning finds the active workers on each side of the question in earnest consultation over their plans for to-day. Partisans of each side will be around the polls all day handling tickets and bringing every possible pressure to bear in their favor.

Extra Police Sworn In.

In order to preserve absolute order at the polls to-day Chief of Police Furlong last night sworn in 25 special officers. They went on duty for the regular force last night so that the 30 regulars at night may increase the day force at the election. The specials will probably remain on duty through to-night.

Bogus Tickets Distributed.

Both sides warn their supporters against bogus tickets which went abroad last night both for and against the dispensary. Voters should bear in mind that the tickets should read in the plural and with quotation marks as follows: "For Dispensaries" or "Against Dispensaries;" "For Distilleries" or "Against Distilleries." Bogus tickets in the singular number of the noun and without quotations in the field last night read as follows: For Dispensary and Against Dispensary. The same may have been true of the tickets for or against distilleries, but none of those was seen last night. That either side should thus attempt to take unfair advantage is to be deplored.

Registrar Pickett Resigns.

One of the incidents of yesterday was the resignation under pressure of Registrar T. G. Pickett, of the Fourth ward. Yesterday morning the following communication was handed to the Mayor:

Wilmington, N. C., July 26.

Hon. W. E. Springer, Mayor of the City of Wilmington, N. C.:

DEAR SIR: We have reliable information that Mr. Tom Pickett, the registrar for the Fourth Ward, was in a drunken condition last night and at 12 o'clock to-day is in bed and is incapacitated to perform the duties of registrar and judge of election in the coming election to-morrow. In order that this election may be held fairly and above suspicion and with credit to the city government, we respectfully ask you to call a meeting of the Board of Aldermen at once, for the purpose of dismissing this man and for the purpose of appointing some competent man in his place.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBT. G. GRADY, Chairman.

B. F. Hall, R. W. Price, L. B. Rogers, W. M. Cumming, J. O. Carr, H. W. Malloy.

Upon receipt of the communication and after due notice, Mayor Springer convened the Board of Aldermen in special session last evening at 7 o'clock. Seven of the ten members of the Board were present and the communication above was read by the clerk. Alderman W. E. Yopp immediately handed the clerk the resignation of Mr. Pickett in the following language:

July 26th, 1904.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen:

I see in the evening paper a communication alleging that I am incompetent to act as registrar on account of being drunk in the discharge of my duties. I wish to say this statement is absolutely false. But as there seems to be a dissatisfaction with my course, I am too independent to continue to act when I am not wanted by any person of the community. I, therefore, tender you my resignation, and suggest to you to appoint Mr. Wm. A. Willson, Jr., in my place. I will turn over the books to my successor.

Respectfully yours,

T. G. PICKETT,

Registrar of Fourth Ward.

Mr. Pickett's resignation was accepted and Mr. Willson was elected in his stead. The Board then adjourned. The incident was the sensation of the afternoon.

The Saloons Are Closed.

The law having been construed to mean that the polls do not open until 8 o'clock, saloon keepers of the city were notified yesterday afternoon that they need not close until 8 o'clock instead of 6 P. M. as they had been notified by official advertisement in the newspapers. The law requires that all saloons shall close 12 hours before and shall not open until 12 hours after any election of the kind to be held to-day. All of the bar-rooms of the city will accordingly be closed until 7:06 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Parade Yesterday Afternoon.

A parade of ladies, children and men from the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon was one of the novel features of the campaign. The parade was headed by 17 policemen and was very creditable indeed to the dispensary people, consisting of carriages, wagonettes, surries and other vehicles. Banners were displayed bearing sentimental mottoes of various descriptions, appealing to the voters. The parade went from Fifth and Market to Fifth and Castle, down Castle to Front, thence to Red Cross and up to Fourth street and out Fourth to Bladen; thence back again to Chesnut and down to Fifth and to the church. While the parade consisted largely of ladies and children there were a number of men in the pageant, among them being Messrs. W. M. Cumming, H. W. Malloy, R. H. Beery, J. P. King, Jr., E. Piner, W. E. Watson, John W. Gafford, W. B. Cooper and others.

The Ladies To-day.

Ladies of the city who are affiliated with the dispensary will play a prominent part in the campaign to-day. Besides an all-day prayer-meeting in the First Baptist church, a number of ladies will be at each polling place at improvised stands erected yesterday afternoon to dispense lemonade and serve lunch to all dispensary workers. The dispensary managers claim that the presence of the ladies is not to exert an undue influence on the voters, but to furnish their workers with refreshments so they may remain around the polls all day. It is announced, however, that dispensary advocates will be welcomed at the booths.

Parade of Boys.

From the First Baptist church to day there will be a parade of boys carrying banners with mottoes. Their line of march will be along the principal streets and around the polls. The banners will be the same as those used in Newbern and Greensboro. The boys are requested to meet at 9 o'clock this morning.

Silenced The Sign.

The anti-dispensary people had arranged to avail themselves last night of the advertising electric flash light sign of the Consolidated Company on the dome of the Atlantic National Bank building. A large crowd assembled yesterday afternoon on the street and manifested great interest in the mottoes as they were being placed in readiness for the night, but all at once the electricians were called off and people began to wonder why. It was stated that the sign on the dome was out of a window of Union Hall, occupied by the Allied Trades Unions of the city, and that Mr. J. Edgar Lewis and Mr. G. F. Quinn, prominent members of the Central Labor Committee, called on General Manager Skelding and objected to the signs being manipulated for such advertising purposes, especially while the parade of ladies and children were passing the street directly under where it was flashing its rays in the day time. Other pressure is also said to have been brought to bear upon the Consolidated people and they at once cancelled their contract for the advertising of the anti dispensary managers, stating, however, that the same service had been offered to the dispensary people at the same rate.

DEMOCRATIC HOSTS.

Meeting of the State Executive Committee Held in Raleigh Last Night.

SIMMONS IS RE-ELECTED.

Central Committee Named from Congressional Districts—Action as to County Primaries—Joint Discussion With Republicans—Notes.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 26.—At a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee held in this city to-night Senator F. M. Simmons was unanimously re-elected State Chairman and Alex. J. Fields was chosen secretary, a central committee of four members from each Congressional district was appointed and a resolution was adopted providing that there be a joint canvass of the Democratic and the Republican candidates for office in the impending campaign.

A resolution was adopted endorsing the formation of Democratic clubs throughout the State provided they are kept subordinate to the State and the county executive committees, this being required in the event such clubs are formed.

Senator Simmons, in his speech accepting the State chairmanship, declared that the great issue in this campaign locally will be the Watts' law which he said is distinctively a Democratic measure. He predicted that the party will carry the State this year with at least as large a majority as in the last campaign.

R. B. Glenn, Democratic candidate for Governor, was called out and spoke briefly, declaring his intention to make the fight of his life in the campaign and his confidence in State and National victory for Democracy.

A resolution was adopted providing that the Executive Committee will provide an optional primary to be adopted by the executive committee of any county desiring to nominate county candidates and members of the legislature by primary. The Chairman is authorized to appoint a sub-committee to formulate such a plan and when approved by the Chairman it shall become a part of the plan of organization. Where any county executive committee has already called a primary, such committee may formulate and promulgate rules for such election already ordered. The meeting to-night was attended by 27 out of 40 members.

SUCCUMBED TO INJURIES.

Young Mr. F. M. Foy, Jr., Died at Hospital Here Yesterday Morning—Remains Sent to Scott's Hill.

After lingering between life and death for over seven days, young Mr. F. May Foy, Jr., of Scott's Hill, succumbed to injuries received in a runaway near his home Monday a week ago, at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, in this city, yesterday morning at 9:45 o'clock. Death was due to exhaustion following a rupture of the urethra, for which an operation was performed last Thursday. The death was particularly sad. Mr. Foy was just entering upon the threshold of a vigorous young manhood and was remarkably bright intellectually. His life gave great promise and he was the pride of a devoted family.

As before stated Mr. Foy was injured by being thrown from a cart on his father's plantation. One of the heavy wheels of the vehicle struck him in the abdomen, producing internal injuries. At first it was not thought the young man was seriously hurt but complications set in within 24 hours which made it necessary to bring him to the hospital here. However, the complications were of such a grave nature that no power could save him and he passed away quietly with his anxious father, mother and devoted wife at his bedside.

Deceased was the son of Mr. F. M. Foy, one of the leading citizens of Scott's Hill, and was born February 26th, 1879. Five years ago he graduated with rare distinction from the A. & M. College at Raleigh and was one of the most popular students who ever attended that institution. During his college course he won the debater's, orator's and essayist's medal. After graduation he taught civil engineering two years in the A. & M. College but was forced to give up the work on account of his health. He returned to the more healthful and invigorating atmosphere of the farm, and had been devoting himself to agricultural pursuits until his death. Last September he married Miss Maude Alexander, of near Scott's Hill, and the young wife with his father, mother, three brothers and sisters survive him. Mrs. Henrietta Shepard, of Wilmington, is an aunt of the young man.

The remains were taken on the Newbern train to Scott's Hill yesterday afternoon for interment to-day. The pall-bearers at the station were Messrs. W. A. Whitney, H. A. Huggins, N. N. Davis, Thomas Cowan, McRee Haich and W. A. Boniz.

— Mrs. John Ornsby and three daughters, Misses Leeorion, Lessie, and Hazel, of Lakeland, Fla., who have been visiting friends and relatives in the city, left yesterday for Rocky Point, N. C., to visit Mrs. Ornsby's aged mother, Mrs. Tim Bloodworth.

THE AMERICAN NEGRO.

We find in the New York Times an exceedingly interesting article on the above subject. It is based upon Census Bulletin No. 8 on "Negroes in the United States."

The total number of negroes in the area covered by the Twelfth Census—the United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico—is given as 9,204,531. Of this total 89.7 per cent. reside in the Southern States. The statistical centre of the negro population is in northeastern Alabama, near the Georgia line. In 1790 it was about twenty-seven miles southwest of Petersburg, Virginia. At present the negroes constitute about 6.6 per cent. of the city population of this country and about 15 per cent. of the rural population. Notwithstanding the observed tendency of the negroes to flock to the cities, 77.3 per cent. of them still remain in the farming districts.

The former rate of negro increase established under slavery, has not been maintained, and since 1840 has been less than before that year. Indeed, the rate of increase showed a steady decline through nearly all of the nineteenth century, and this may be expected to be even more marked through the twentieth century. Between 1890 and 1900 the negroes in the rural districts increased only 16.4 per cent., and those in the towns and cities 21.7 per cent. Their increase in the rural districts was about one-third as rapid as that of the whites, and in the cities it was nearly five-sixths that of the whites. These comparisons will doubtless surprise a great many students of race problems. It has been believed that vice and disease in the cities were destroying the negro population by cutting down the birth rate and swelling the death rate. This does not appear to be sustained by statistical comparisons. It is not safe, however, to generalize with too much confidence. The vital statistics of the negro race are so untrustworthy that their value may be doubted. The Census Bureau admits that it has no information as to negro marriages or births, and no complete information as to deaths for the whole country. Its conclusions are based upon the measurably accurate and accepted statistics of an area of country containing about 13.4 per cent. of the negro population and 41.2 per cent. of the white population of continental United States. In this area the death rate among negroes in 1900 appears to have been 34.2 per thousand; that of the whites was 17.3 per thousand. In the absence of equally accurate figures of the birth rate among the negroes these comparisons are more interesting than useful.

Commenting upon the statistics in the bulletin the Times says:

Census Bulletin No. 8, on Negroes in the United States, is of unusual interest. It gives the best answers to be had at the moment to a great many questions concerning which more or less difference of opinion has existed and which are vital to an understanding of the grave problem of the present status, tendency, and future of the negro race in America. Of necessity, the census enumeration of the blacks and its array of items showing their condition are less complete than are those relating to the whites, but considering the effort which has been made to make them as complete and correct as possible, it is thought that the errors and omissions will not affect the totals more than about 2 per cent.

Some surprise will be felt and expressed at the conclusion of the census statisticians that only from 11 to 16 per cent. of those classed as negroes have an admixture of white blood. As the information it is possible to gather on this point is necessarily inaccurate, it may be questioned whether these proportions represent the facts. Illiterate negroes know very little of their ancestry, and the tendency to reversion to the original type, which is somewhat pronounced in an environment tending to the cultivation of typical negro habits, is often observed in cases where the white blood should predominate. The impression one gains from observation outside the cotton belt is that from 40 to 50 per cent. of the negroes are modified by the adventure of white blood. For the whole country it may be that the estimate of 11 to 16 per cent. of mulattoes is as near the truth as may be.

The incompleteness of negro vital statistics will deprive this compilation of much of the interest and value which would else be to it could it have been made full and authoritative in these respects. In a general way it is known there was a marked increase in marriages among young negroes between 1890 and 1900, and a proportionate increase of births may be inferred; but beyond these and the other general fact of a high infant death rate, pretty much everything is left to conjecture. The statistics show, however, a condition of affairs unfavorable to race perpetuation. On the other hand the decrease of illiteracy is so marked as to warrant the generalization that if it should continue to decline in each succeeding ten-year period as rapidly as it did between 1890 and 1900 an improbable assumption—it will touch zero by about 1940. This points to race perpetuation. How much or little satisfaction may be derived from the tables thus hastily summarized will depend largely, no doubt, upon the point of view. They suggest no other solution of the race problem than that likely to be reached through the operation of natural law on the one hand and the spread of education on the other.

If the declaration of The Times is correct as to education among negroes, we expect to see illiteracy among them disappear in about a generation. That is to say that the great proportion of the negro race will be able to read and write. The negro will then come back to his voting privilege under our constitutional amendment limiting suffrage, and then the white men who are to come after us will deal with any other problem that is to arise out of that fact.

If it is true that education has made such progress among the negro population of the South as to hold out the prospect that the negro will be freed from illiteracy within the next thirty-six years, it can be observed how much the Southern States are doing to wipe out ignorance among the negroes of the South.

The Democracy offers the country a President who will keep his eye on every clause of the constitution, and will see to it that every dollar of American money will be maintained at a parity in purchasing power. It offers the country a tariff that will take care of the republic and do no harm to its industries, and it is pledged to take away from the trusts at least the power which a Republican tariff gives them to extort from the people. We can't see why Parker can keep from being elected.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Candidate Davis used to be a railroad conductor and will, of course, see that the Republican ticket is properly punched.—Washington Post.

—— The engineers report 32 feet of water on Charleston bar. That is a plenty for all practical purposes. Now generate the "steam" necessary to make the ships come and go.—Columbia State.

—— Injunctions have been granted for many curious purposes, but an Illinois clergyman who desired his predecessor who remains in the same town, enjoined from officiating at weddings, funerals and baptisms, and diverting fees from his successor, has been unsuccessful. Clerical functions are not confined to the pastorate, and the new pastor ought to reflect that as he is getting the salary he ought not to grudge a part of the incidental revenues to the former pastor.—Philadelphia Record.

—— Dispensary discussions seem to preserve their emotional fervor even when transported beyond the limits of South Carolina. Last Friday two gentlemen of the Georgia house of representatives became unduly exercised over a proposed dispensary bill, and one gentleman threw an ink bottle at the other gentleman's head, with no more serious damage, however, than besprinkling the black fluid over the pates of the members seated between the belligerents. A reconciliation followed; and it was here, no doubt, that the dispensary bottle washed away all stains of the encounter.—Columbia State.

—— The beef trust raises the price of meat on the smallest provocation, simply because it has the power to do so. It is a monopoly, or practically a monopoly; and, therefore, in a position to work its own sweet will. The strike among its workers it seizes upon as an excuse to practice extortion upon the meat consumers of the country, just as the Coal Trust seized upon a similar excuse to squeeze the consumers of coal. And this is a condition the country is facing to-day notwithstanding the Administration's spectacular efforts to win credit for "busting the trusts."—Binghampton, N. Y., Leader.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The cotton market opened barely steady at a decline of two to five points in response to lower Liverpool cables, continued favorable crop advices, notably a monthly report on conditions in Texas and Indian Territory published by a Southern paper and the favorable character of the weather map. At first there was some demand here for August from a couple of large floor brokers and that position following the call was run up to 10.32 but the demand from this source was soon filled and the list, which, during the first few minutes had shown steadiness in sympathy with the near positions and as a result of covering eased off to a net decline of about seven to twelve points. Later the losses were increased a couple of points or so, when the weekly bureau report was published acknowledging a very favorable showing aside from certain sectional drawbacks, but after midday the market recovered a few points on covering and in the late trading showed a generally steady undertone with certain brokers believed to be trading for lower Wall street interests buying on every soft spot. The close was steady net one to ten points lower, the largest declines being on the near positions. Sales were estimated at 75,000 bales.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The contract for the Mount Olive Electric Light and Power Company's plant was let on Monday.

— Durham Herald: If this country is to practice imperialism it should at least go into the kind that pays.

—Durham Herald: Mr. Winston may not be acceptable to all Democrats yet we do not see what the Republicans are howling about.

—The Bank of Wake, at Wake Forest, has been chartered, to do business at Wake Forest College. Authorized capital, $25,000; paid in, $6,000.

— The Republicans of Durham county will place a full ticket in the field and propose to give the Democrats a hot contest. The same can be said of many counties.

— The tobacco season will open at Oxford on Monday next and the warehouses are ready for active work. High prices are anticipated in view of the short crop of tobacco planted in this country.

— Editor Josephus Daniels, of the Raleigh News and Observer, left Raleigh Monday morning for New York to attend the meeting of the National Democratic Executive Committee, of which he is the member from North Carolina.

—At Asheville on Monday afternoon Tom Hannah, an employe of the Asheville Electric Company, was instantly killed by falling across a number of live wires. Hannah was working at the power plant of the company when the accident occurred. He was badly burned about his body.

— Raleigh News and Observer: The indications all over the State are that North Carolina is to be blessed with a good crop year. Last season the splendid price for cotton enabled many farmers to get from under a burden of debt, and with the prospects that are bright this year, the farmer's life is a happy one.

—Mr. C. D. Benbow has leased to Messrs. Fry & Cobb the handsome Benbow Hotel at Greensboro. The lessees have been conducting with success the Guilford Hotel, at Greensboro, and will now conduct both. They have a practical monopoly of the hotel business in Greensboro.

—There was a regular cloudburst at Weldon Saturday night and much damage was done to cotton. A negro who was driving a horse belonging to Maj. Emry, drove into the usually harmless little branch near the fair grounds, which had become a roaring torrent and the horse was drowned. The negro escaped by catching hold of a limb and climbing a tree — At Raleigh on Monday the Secretary of State chartered the Magnolia High School, of Magnolia, N. C., "to conduct and establish schools and libraries, protect and foster education, buy, sell and deal in books and periodicals, conduct teachers' exchange or employment bureaus, act as trustee or guardian for minors, orphans or their estates and to deal in all kinds of school supplies. The incorporators are J.C. Horne, H. W. Swinson, H. E. Newbury, C. P. Gaylor, J. H. Graves, J. A. McArthur, A. F. Smith, W. L. Frederick.

— At Goldsboro on Monday morning at 3 o'clock Mr. Grey Speight died from a cut in the right temple, inflicted on Saturday night about 12 o'clock in the northern part of the city. When found Saturday night he was leaning on a fence on East Centre street, just a few steps south of G. W. Brown's grocery store, and was evidently very weak from loss of blood. The fracas must have occurred on John street, north, near the old Langston market, where Mr. Henry Grady now runs an ice house, as the first trace of blood was found just beyond a chicken coop that stands near that house. The man refused to tell who cut him, but after his death Charlie Wilkins, a young man, was arrested on circumstantial evidence and on Monday was bound over to the Superior Court which meets in September. Speight was at one time a member of the Goldoboro police force, having gone there from Greene county. He had a knife in his hand when he was found bleeding on the street. It is said that Speight was a desperate character when he was drinking and had often been before the Mayor's court and the higher courts for cutting and shooting affrays. Even before he left Greene county he was a terror there. He was about forty-five years of age and leaves a wife and one child. Messrs. Dortch and Barham have been retained as counsel for the defendant, Wilkins.

— On Saturday Deputy U. S. Marshal Surles and assistants captured near Dunn, Harnett county, one of the largest moonshine stills he had ever seen. The size of the still was probably fixed by the extent of the business it was intended to cater to. All of Harnett county is "prohibition," there being neither still, bar-room nor dispensary licensed to do business in the county.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." It's just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Morning Star

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 27.

TO MARRY IN HIS OLD AGE.

Senator Davis, Vice Presidential Candidate, to Wed His Old Sweetheart She Now 70 and He 80 Years.

[Richmond, Va., Times Special.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—News comes from Shepherdstown, W. Va., that ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, will in the fall marry Mrs. Katherine Reynolds, widow of Dr. John Reynolds, of Shepherdstown. Mrs. Reynolds is seventy years old, while Senator Davis is eighty.

There is an interesting story back of the approaching wedding. Many years ago, when Henry G. Davis was a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, he became a suitor for the hand of Miss Katherine Cushwa, whose family was one of the most prominent in Washington county, Md. Miss Cushwa was a pronounced beauty and was the acknowledged belle in the section in which she lived. Her family being an aristocratic one, she became the leader in the exclusive social set and at all social gatherings Miss Cushwa's society was sought after by the young gallants of Maryland and West Virginia. She and young Davis met for the first time at a dance at a country house and frequently thereafter he became her escort. The friendship thus begun, speedily ripened into love. Davis proposed and the young woman was willing, but her parents could not reconcile themselves to the idea of their beautiful and accomplished daughter marrying a poor railroad brakeman and the young man was sent on his way with a broken heart.

Young Davis disappeared to rise rapidly in the railroad service until he became the richest and most powerful citizen in his State, while Miss Cushwa became the bride of Dr. John Reynolds, a prominent physician of Shepherdstown, her old, or first "flame," also in the course of time taking unto himself a life partner in a distant part of the State. It was not until many years afterward that the two old lovers came together again, one as a widower and the other as a widow. The old spark rekindled with the result that there will be a notable wedding at the quaint old town of Shepherdstown some time in the month of October, so the gossips say.

Mrs. Reynolds is remarkably well preserved, and for a half century or more has been a social leader of Shepherdstown. She is the mother of two grown up children and the grandmother of a half dozen interesting boys and girls.

Emphatically Denied.

BEDFORD, PA., July 26.—Senator Davis emphatically denies the report that he is to marry the widow of Dr. John Reynolds, of Shepherdstown, W. Va. The senator has been receiving telegrams of congratulations all day and is very indignant. He says there is not a word of truth in it.

CROPS AND THE WEATHER.

Weekly Bulletin of the North Carolina Section of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Crop bulletin for the week ending Monday, July 25th, 1904:

The weather during the first half of the week was warm and dry with temperatures ranging above normal; the latter part was showery and decidedly cooler. General rains set in during the afternoon on the 21st and continued at intervals in most sections of the State on the 22nd and 23rd. The heaviest downpours occurred again in the south-central section although there were heavy, damaging rains in Davidson and Granville counties; while the lightest showers occurred in the eastern district, with practically no rain in the extreme eastern counties. Elsewhere the rainfall was sufficient and came at the proper time to benefit all growing crops. In the extreme eastern part of the State there is a general complaint of drought, which has been unbroken for a number of weeks; and the crops in that section are beginning to show its effects. Corn and cotton continue to improve satisfactorily; blooms on cotton are now general. Threshing wheat is still in progress in the central and western parts of the State, excepting the extreme west, where harvesting is in the state of completion. Tobacco, on an average, made very slight improvement during the week. There were a number of fields badly damaged by hail and wind storms, which occurred in several eastern and central counties on the 21st. Curing is becoming general in the principal tobacco growing districts. Peas are growing nicely. Melons are ripening and are being placed on the market; the quality, however, is generally not satisfactory. Apples continue to drop; prospects for other fruit are fair.

Rains (in inches) for the week ending 8 A. M. to-day: Raleigh, 1.13; Goldsboro, 2.23; Greensboro, 1.86; Weldon, 3.86; Lumberton, 1.32; Newbern, 2.22; Wilmington, 1.20; Charlotte, 3.00; Asheville, 0.70; Weldon, 3.86.

JAPANESE TROOPS ENTER NEW CHWANG

Japs Took the Russian Position at Tatche Kiao at Night at Point of the Bayonet.

RUSSIANS IN FULL RETREAT.

The Japanese Lost 350 Men Killed and Wounded—Russian Losses Are Not Known—Chinese Flag Flying at New Chwang.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

NEW CHWANG, July 26.—Japanese scouts have already passed through here and the troops are expected momentarily. The Russian inhabitants of New Chwang have left. Japanese flags are flying all over the city.

TIEN TSIN, July 26.—It is reported here that the Japanese lost 350 men killed and wounded in the fighting which has taken place outside of New Chwang during the last two days. The Russian losses during the engagements are not known. A small detachment of Japanese scouts entered New Chwang last night. About 200 troops arrived there this morning and more are expected this evening. Crowds of Russian refugees were this morning awaiting trains at Yin Kow, close to New Chwang, to take them away.

The Chinese flag is flying over the custom house at New Chwang. It is reported that the Japanese took the Russian position at Tatchekiao last night at the point of the bayonet.

More Seizures.

SUEZ, July 26.—The Peninsula and Oriental Steamship Company's steamer Formosa has just arrived here flying the Russian naval flag and with a prize crew on board. She was captured in the Red Sea by one of the vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet.

LIVERPOOL, July 26.—The owners of the British steamer Calchas, bound from Puget Sound to Japan, have received a telegram from Hong Kong reporting that the Calchas has been seized by the Vladivostok squadron.

The steamer Calchas, belonging to the Alfred Holt fleet of Liverpool, sailed from Tacoma, Washington, July 9, and was due to arrive at Yokohama Wednesday or Thursday. She carried a great quantity of flour consigned to Japanese firms and also had on board much other general freight of the nature usually shipped from Tacoma. She is of 4,279 tons.

Russians Retreating.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 26, 5:05 P. M.—Dispatches received by the war office announce that the Russians have retreated to Hai Cheng. They decided to withdraw from Tatche Kiao Sunday evening. General Searoubaieff, commanding the Fourth army corps, who is General Stakelberg's senior, resolved to take this step in consequence of the reports of scouts that the Japanese were turning the left flank.

The Japanese forces are believed to include the whole of the armies of Generals Oku and Nodzu. More than seven divisions of Japanese are engaged. The rear guard action between Datchapu and Tatche Kiao continued until 11 o'clock at night, when the Japanese were within sight of the Russian entrenchments. The Russians withdrew in perfect order, favored by the beautiful moonlight. Further details of the fight have not yet been forwarded to the war office.

General Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese column in the vicinity of Saimaisza, which is believed to be two divisions strong, is marching along the valley of the Taitse with the obvious aim of cutting the railroad above Liao Yang.

The evacuation of Tatchekiao was prepared for long ago by the Russians as military experts have repeatedly indicated. The retirement is not regarded as materially altering the situation. The Russians had strongly fortified Hai Cheng in view of this contingency.

TOKIO, July 26, 6 P. M.—The Russian Vladivostok squadron has not been reported to-day.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Five Persons Injured—Cars, Engines and Other Property Damaged.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BRISTOL, TENN., July 26.—In a freight wreck on the Southern Railway at Patton's mill, four miles west of Jonesboro, Tenn., to-day, caused by the spreading of rails, five persons were injured, two seriously, ten cars were wrecked and two engines belonging to the Central of Georgia railroad, being transported from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, were badly damaged.

The most seriously injured is John N. Snow, of Philadelphia, who was travelling as care-taker of the new engines. One of the wrecked cars leaving the track was throw into a cottage near the line, and timbers flying from the demolished porch of the house injured Miss Mollie Patton. Snow was taken to Telford, Tenn. His condition is critical.

U. S. SENATOR SIMMONS

Re-elected Chairman of the State Executive Committee.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 26.—The State Democratic Executive Committee to-night unanimously re-elected United States Senator F. M. Simmons chairman, and A. J. Field secretary.

A resolution for joint debates with the Republicans was adopted, as was a resolution for an optional primary plan for election of county officers. The campaign in the State will begin in August and the prediction of committeemen is for a Democratic majority of fifty to sixty thousand in this State.

WARM WIRELETS.

Fire yesterday destroyed the largest electric wire factory in St. Petersburg, Russia, with the loss of about $1,250,000. A large quantity of cables and wire for the torpedoes and mines intended for the Baltic squadron was destroyed.

Dr. Thomas B. McDow was found dead in his bed at his residence in Charleston, S. C. A physician declares that he died from "natural causes, heart disease." On March 12, 1889, Dr. McDow shot and killed Captain Francis Warrington Dawson, editor of the News and Courier.

Was Asked a Great Many Questions Concerning His Account With the First National Bank of Asheville.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 26.—William Breese was again under the fire of District Attorney Holton's cross-examination in the United States District Court to-day and was asked a great many questions concerning his account with the First National Bank of Asheville, the transactions covering several notes and other matters. The witness answered some of the questions directly but in many instances he stated that he did not remember.

The district attorney handed the witness a number of checks which he had drawn on his account and asked him to explain for what purpose the money was used. Breese told for what purposes the money he had procured on a few of the checks was used, but he did not remember what went with the money paid out on a majority of them. The purpose of the prosecution was to show that the witness did not state the truth when he testified that his overdraft was created in the payment of interest on his indebtedness to the bank, but the witness would not admit that his original statement was untrue.

Breese again went over the Rollins notes and explained why he had signed the name of Major W. W. Rollins (the present postmaster at Asheville) to two notes for $1,000 each. Major Rollins was out of town and it was necessary to make payments on two of his notes held by other banks. His relations with Major Rollins were close and intimate, and he did not hesitate to sign the name of the absent man to two notes, which were promptly forwarded to banks holding other paper. Immediately he wrote Major Rollins of his action, and this was confirmed upon the return to Asheville of Rollins, who signed a note to take up the two other notes at maturity.

District Attorney Holton recalled Major Rollins, who reiterated his testimony of last week, when he charged forgery.

"Did you ever give Major Breese authority to sign your name?" asked the district attorney.

"I did not."

"Did Major Breese write you a letter or even speak to you concerning the notes he had signed?"

"He did not."

"Did you ever have any knowledge of the notes to which some one else had signed your name?"

"Not until I came here to this court."

"Under cross-examination Major Rollins was asked if the two notes he had not signed did not about cover the interest on the genuine notes he had made, and replied that he supposed it did.

When the bank failed Major Rollins did not know that there was an outstanding note against him. The condition came to his knowledge when he was sued on the notes, much to his surprise, for Breese had signed an agreement guaranteeing to hold him harmless.

NO CHANGE IN CHICAGO STRIKE SITUATION.

Packers Rushing in Men to Take Places of Strikers—Seven Thousand Installed at the Different Plants.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Little if any advantage was gained by either side in the stock yards strike and there is no hope to-night of an immediate settlement of the difficulty. Realizing that they have one of the hardest propositions to contend with in the history of the packing industry, the packers are leaving nothing undone to gain the upper hand in the struggle with the 30,000 union employes who are on strike. All day long workmen from outside points were rushed to Chicago and taken to the stock yards under police protection to fill the places of the strikers. To-night it was announced by the packers that seven thousand new men were now installed in the different plants at the stock yards. With these men and with the arrivals that are expected each day the packers will probably get their affairs in such shape that the strikers will be compelled to seek a peaceable settlement at the dictation of the employers.

With all the union workmen out on strike with the exception of the packing house teamsters, the only additions to-day to the ranks of the strikers were about one hundred teamsters who quit work as individuals, preferring to do this rather than wait for an official order to walk out, and the waitresses in the restaurants at the stock yards controlled by the packing companies. The teamsters have become restless and the general belief is that few if any of the seven hundred employed in the packing industry will wait for the injunction of the national officers of the union to go on strike.

Rumors of renewed efforts to settle the difficulty by arbitration were thick to-day, but upon investigation they were found to be without foundation.

Numerous Disturbances.

Vigilant policemen guarded the entrances to the stock yards all day and night, but despite this precaution disturbances were numerous, and two of them ended with fatal results. While an attack was being made on some colored strike breakers as they were leaving the stock yards to-night, John Stokes, one of the strikers, was shot and fatally wounded by one of the negroes. Stokes, together with fully a hundred companions, it is said, rushed on the negroes and one of the latter drew a revolver and fired into the crowd, hitting Stokes. The police were close at hand and succeeded in scattering the rioters after considerable difficulty.

The union men and their friends have become so embittered against the colored strike-breakers that the appearance of a negro in the vicinity of the stock yards is almost certain to be followed by violence. A negro barber about to climb upon a street car at the entrance to the stock yards to-night was dragged to the street by a mob and beaten until unconscious.

NORFOLK, VA., July 26.—Howard Cleaton, 18 years old, a son of one of the most prominent merchants of Portsmouth, Va., was shot and instantly killed to-night by Henry Long, 35 years old, well known in business circles of that city. Long, who immediately gave himself up, stated that Cleaton had used abusive language and vile insinuations against him, which so exasperated him that he fired the fatal shot.

TAGGART OF IND. CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

At the Meeting Held Yesterday in New York of Democratic National Committee.

ELECTION WAS UNANIMOUS.

Other Officers Chosen—Committee Arrangements to Manage the Campaign—Chairman Taggart Will Select the Managers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Expectations were fulfilled to-day when Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, was elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Endorsed by nearly every member of the committee the day after the convention adjourned at St. Louis, it has been known ever since that only the decree of Judge Parker in favor of some other man, or the consent of Senator Gorman to accept the place, could prevent the selection of Mr. Taggart. Neither of those contingencies arose and the Indiana man was unanimously chosen to a place for which he long has had aspirations. Although the vote was unanimous, it was not until after it was actually in progress that opposition to Mr. Taggart's election was withdrawn. Beginning with the return of Senator Gorman, former Senator Hill, former Senator Jones and other Democratic leaders from Esopus last evening, and lasting up to the moment when the committee was called to order to-day, the strongest possible efforts were made to bring Senator Gorman into the field to arrange a combination that would place some one besides Taggart at the head of the committee. Almost continuous conferences were held, intimations of great financial advantages to the party were made, and many expedients were suggested, even to delaying the election until after the committee visit to Judge Parker to-morrow in order to defeat Taggart. But nothing could change the determination of his friends to force an election to-day and to compel a show of strength. Failing to secure the necessary conditions to defeat Taggart the opposition yielded and the proceedings of the committee were brief and harmonious.

The contest for the other offices created only a slight diversion and differences regarding them, which have been somewhat spirited for a few days past were easily adjusted. The more important action of the committee aside from the selection of a chairman was that of arranging for a committee or committees to manage the campaign. A proposition submitted by William F. Sheehan, slightly modified upon the suggestion of Senator Bailey, was adopted. As agreed to, it is as follows:

"That the chair be authorized to appoint not to exceed two vice chairmen, as his judgment may determine; that the chairman be authorized to appoint an executive committee of not less than five, nor more than seven members; that the chair be authorized to appoint a finance committee of not less than three, nor more than five members, and if in the judgment of the chair these two committees should be amalgamated into an executive committee, then the executive committee shall be composed of seven members; that if at any time the exigencies of the campaign should in the judgment of the executive committee and the chairman of the national committee require it, or if it becomes advisable to increase the number, that they may select additional members, not more than one from any one State, as members of said executive committee; that in conformity with a resolution adopted by the last Democratic national convention, the members of the said executive and finance committees may be selected from outside the membership of the national committee."

Under this resolution Chairman Taggart will select campaign managers. It is taken for granted that he will be the chairman of the executive committee, as that custom is always followed.

After the adjournment of the committee there were a number of consultations among the leaders and the names of several men were mentioned as likely to be on the committee or committees which ever course it is decided to pursue. Among those mentioned were William F. Sheehan, of New York; Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland; August Belmont, of New York; David B. Hill, of New York; James M. Guffy, of Pennsylvania; John T. McGraw, of West Virginia; William H. Martin, of Arkansas; John P. Hopkins or James P. Eckels, of Illinois; Bradley B. Smalley, of Vermont; George A. Gaston, of Massachusetts; James Smith, Jr., of New York; T. F. Ryan, of Virginia; Governor Chamberlain, of Oregon; Chas. S. Thomas, of Colorado, and Fred T. DuBois, of Idaho.

The plans of Chairman Taggart for the next few days include the trip to Esopus to-morrow, returning to New York to-morrow evening. He expects to spend Thursday in this city consulting with a number of prominent Democrats regarding the composition of the committees he is authorized to appoint. Thursday evening or Friday he will leave for Indiana, but will return almost immediately, announce the committees, establish headquarters and enter upon active campaign work.

David B. Hill was seen after the committee had adjourned. His rooms have been constantly occupied by prominent New York Democrats and there was considerable discussion regarding the campaign in this State. Mr. Hill was satisfied and confident. He declared that he would not be a member of any committee during the campaign. "I am a committee of my own," he asserted. He said that of course Mr Sheehan and Mr. Belmont would be considered in connection with committees to conduct the campaign. Mr. Hill will not go to Esopus to-morrow, but will leave to-morrow afternoon for Wolfert's Roost.

Senator Gorman did not attend any of the conferences at the Hoffman House, but was visited during the day by many prominent Democrats. He did not see many other visitors. He expects to leave for home to-morrow.

Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, was elected secretary of the committee by a vote of 35 to 12, the selection subsequently being made unanimous.

Edwin Sefton, of the District of Columbia, was made assistant secretary.

John L. Martin, of Missouri, was elected sergeant-at-arms and Samuel Donnelson, of Tennessee, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Two Men Slash Each Other With Knives. Both Are Dead.

Lankford was killed in the fight and Shepherd died later from wounds received in the encounter. The quarrel was over a woman. All parties to the tragedy are white.

COTTON SPINNERS TO CURTAIL PRODUCTION.

Representatives of Southern Mills Decided to Reduce Production 25 Per Cent. During August and September.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 26.—A special from Gainesville, S. C., says: By a vote which was practically unanimous, cotton spinners from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, who met here to day, decided to curtail production 25 per cent., or to a basis of 75 per cent. during the months of August and September. This action was due to the unsettled condition of the cotton goods market and to the poor demand both from home dealers and exporters.

The question of curtailment was the most important matter considered at the meeting, which was largely attended, especially by South Carolina mill men. Colonel James L. Orr, president of the Piedmont Manufacturing Company, presided. The special committee appointed at the Spartanburg conference to ascertain the extent of the curtailment now existing showed the following: North Carolina, 50 per cent.; South Carolina, 36½; Georgia, 25; Alabama, 25; Mississippi, 25.

After a brief discussion the following resolution was adopted, the vote being 2,183,052 spindles for and 106,096 spindles against: "That the mills present agree that production shall be reduced during the months of August and September 25 per cent. by either running all of the machinery 75 per cent. of the time or stopping all machinery one-fourth of the time, as may be most advantageous to the respective mills, the object being to limit production to 75 per cent. of normal and they further earnestly recommend that all the cloth mills in the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, which are not curtailing to this extent, shall do so for the months of August and September." It was further agreed by the spinners that the manufacturers would not pay freight beyond New York, on goods destined to bleacheries, and that the bills should be paid within ten days from date of shipment or date of invoice. A rate schedule for the month of August was adopted, and prices were fixed below which the mills will not sell. A committee was appointed to notify the mills of any changes in prices. Commission houses will be notified of this tariff sheet.

Telegrams were received from South Carolina manufacturers indicating a material improvement in the condition of the cotton goods market since the Spartanburg conference, when new higher prices were agreed upon.

CONDITION OF COTTON.

Weather Bureau's Crop Report—Cotton Generally Has Done Well.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The weekly crop report of the weather bureau issued to-day says:

Cotton has suffered to some extent from lack of cultivation and too rapid growth in portions of the central districts, and while shedding and rust are reported in places elsewhere, the crop generally has done well. Bolls are opening in the more southerly portions and picking has begun in Texas, where ample rains have relieved the droughty conditions prevailing at the close of the previous week. Boll weevils have appeared in two border parishes of Louisiana, adjacent to the area affected in Texas, but as yet are causing no material injury.

Tobacco continues to do well in nearly all tobacco States, the least favorable reports being received from North Carolina and Kentucky; the crop having sustained some damage from local storms in North Carolina and in Kentucky, though doing fairly well, is rather uneven. Topping of early planted tobacco is in general progress in the Ohio Valley and Middle Atlantic States.

THE FAYETTEVILLE CONTEMPT CASE.

Attorney Bolton and Magistrate McLean Had Misunderstood One Another.

[Fayetteville Observer, 26th]

Mr. J. W. Bolton, who was committed to jail for 10 days by Magistrate McLean for contempt, was discharged by that magistrate two hours later. Mr. Bolton did not actually get in jail, but was kept in custody by Sheriff Marsh on the advice of his attorney, who said that the commitment was not properly made out, as in contempt cases the act of contempt must be specified in writing and attached to the commitment, which was not done in this case.

About 4 o'clock Magistrate McLean held a conference with the sheriff, Mr. Bolton and some of Mr. Bolton's friends, and shortly afterwards it was given out that an amicable understanding had been reached and Mr. Bolton discharged.

Magistrate McLean, when seen by an Observer reporter afterwards said: "Mr. Bolton said that I misunderstood his language, and thereupon I ordered his discharge from custody."

Mr. Bolton, when seen, said: "At this conference, Magistrate McLean said that I had used certain language in his court; I said that I had not, whereupon he said he misunderstood me, and ordered my discharge without any apology being made by me or the retracting of anything that I had said."

"The case of the State vs. M. H. Powell, out of which grew the Bolton alleged contempt case, was removed from 'Squire McLean and is being tried before Magistrate W. C. Troy this afternoon. Powell is charged with an assault on Addie Black, a negro woman, with a deadly weapon. After hearing the evidence and arguments the magistrate reserved his decision."

MAYOR'S COURT YESTERDAY.

Two Sent to Jail for Thirty Days Each. Other Cases Tried.

Eight or ten defendants were before the Mayor yesterday, but none of the cases was of importance. Dave Smith, the negro charged with attempting to break into the store of the Brunswick Grocery Co., Saturday night, was sent over to the Mayor from Justice Fowler's court, but his case was continued. In Justice Fowler's court Smith was given preliminary trial on the charge of resisting Officer Frank George when Mr. George caught him in the act of attempting to get in the store and he was committed in default of $100 justified bond for his appearance in that case.

Martha Jones, colored, drunk and disorderly at Third and Hanover streets, and Sis Baldwin, colored, drunk and disorderly at Fourth and Bladen streets, were each sent to jail for 30 days.

Bettie Johnson and Mary Moore, colored, charged with engaging in an affray at Ninth and Princess streets, were arraigned, the first named having been fined $5 and costs and the latter having been discharged.

The House of Representatives of the Georgia General Assembly has passed a bill increasing the salary of the Governor of Georgia from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum. It will doubtless pass the Senate.
